HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION memorializing Barry J. Brumer for his years of dedication and service to the state of Indiana.

Whereas, Barry J. Brumer passed away on Wednesday, January 17, 2001, after a long battle with stomach cancer;

Whereas, Barry's death will leave a terrible void in the lives of his family and all the people who knew him;

Whereas, In all his endeavors, Barry exhibited a positive attitude resulting in a positive effect on those around him;

Whereas, Barry was an example to others of graceful perseverance in times of great difficulty;

Whereas, Barry displayed tremendous courage and strength throughout his illness and was an inspiration to all of us;

Whereas, Barry gained the admiration of his peers, members of the Indiana General Assembly, and many others through his professional abilities and his strength of character and tenacity;

Whereas, Barry served the Legislative Services Agency (LSA) and the Indiana General Assembly with professionalism and dedication for 7 1/2 years;

Whereas, Barry's great strength of character was evident during his illness through his display of concern and compassion for his fellow workers at the Legislative Services Agency when he put aside his own pain and suffering to assist his co-workers in the daily work of the Legislative Services Agency;

Whereas, Barry's compassion, dedication, and professionalism were never more evident than during the early stages of his illness when he would come to the office nearly every day so that his co-workers would not be burdened with his share of the work;

Whereas, He cheerfully accepted and skillfully completed many professional challenges in his position at the Legislative Services Agency;

Whereas, He developed and shared his expertise in several areas of the law in his position at the Legislative Services Agency;

Whereas, He tirelessly provided professional assistance and moral support to his peers;

Whereas, He made a sizeable contribution to the work of the Indiana General Assembly;

Whereas, Barry faithfully served as counsel to the House Public Health Committee and provided countless hours of advice and expertise in the area of health policy and legislation;

Whereas, Barry exhibited the patience of Job in handling many last minute requests for amendments and bill drafts for the Public Health Committee;

Whereas, The Public Health Committee has grown richer from the sage advice of his counsel;

Whereas, The membership of the House Public Health Committee wishes to honor and recognize Barry J. Brumer by bestowing upon him the title of Honorary Member of the House Public Health Committee and to extend best wishes and love to Barry's wife, Marcia, and his son, Matthew;

Whereas, Barry was a beloved friend and member of the staff of the Legislative Services Agency and will be missed greatly; and

Whereas, We extend our deepest sympathy and compassion to his family in this trying time: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

- 1 SECTION 1. That the members of the Indiana General Assembly
2 wish to express our sincerest sympathies to Barry's wife, Marcia; his
